COVER:

PIERCED AND BESET, by Lee Chesney.
Original color intaglio print, 17″ x 24″.

The work of Lee Chesney, M.F.A., professor of art in charge of the printmaking program at the University of Illinois, currently is included in the American Federation of Arts traveling shows and in the Museum of Modern Art's "Fifty Years of American Art" which toured Europe. He also is represented in curator's selections circulating in the Scandinavian countries, Japan, and Australia. His work was exhibited in the fourth International Biennale, Bordighera, Italy, and the first International Print Biennale, Tokyo. An oil painting by Mr. Chesney was awarded first prize in the Centennial Exhibition of the American Association of Land Grant Colleges and State Universities.

Mr. Chesney's work is in the collections of numerous museums in America and abroad, including the Museum of Modern Art, Tokyo; the Tate Gallery and Victoria and Albert Museum, London; National Gallery of Art, Stockholm; Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris; Museum of Modern Art and Brooklyn Museum, New York City; Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.; Philadelphia Museum; and Chicago Art Institute.

A Fulbright Research Fellow to Japan in 1956-1957, Mr. Chesney also has been visiting artist at the University of Colorado, Michigan State University, and the University of Washington.

ISLAND BEACH, by Edward Betts
Painting in acrylic polymer, 18″ x 24″

Edward Betts, Professor of Art at the University of Illinois, holds a B.A. degree in History of Art from Yale University and an M.F.A. in Painting from the University of Illinois.

He has been represented in virtually every important national exhibition, including the Corcoran Biennials of Contemporary American Painting, American Painting Today at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Museum Annual, Brooklyn Museum International Watercolor Exhibitions, Pennsylvania Academy Annuals, and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, as well as international exchange exhibitions in England, Brazil, and Japan. He has held fourteen one-man shows in New York City, Chicago, Boston, and Philadelphia.

Among the major awards he has received are the $2,000 First Altman Landscape Prize at the National Academy of Design in 1957 and again in 1959; Silver Medals of Honor at the American Watercolor Society exhibitions in 1953 and 1959; California Watercolor Society Purchase Award in 1957 and two medals at the Philadelphia Watercolor Club in 1954 and 1955.

Paintings by Mr. Betts are included in the permanent collections of the Fogg Museum of Art, National Academy of Design, Butler Institute of American Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Atlanta University, La Jolla Art Center, the Walter Chrysler Art Museum, and others.

The subject matter of Mr. Betts' paintings is almost exclusively the coast of Maine, where he spends his summers.

ISLAND BEACH, by Edward Betts
Painting in acrylic polymer, 18″ x 24″

Edward Betts, Professor of Art at the University of Illinois, holds a B.A. degree in History of Art from Yale University and an M.F.A. in Painting from the University of Illinois.

He has been represented in virtually every important national exhibition, including the Corcoran Biennials of Contemporary American Painting, American Painting Today at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Museum Annual, Brooklyn Museum International Watercolor Exhibitions, Pennsylvania Academy Annuals, and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, as well as international exchange exhibitions in England, Brazil, and Japan. He has held fourteen one-man shows in New York City, Chicago, Boston, and Philadelphia.

Among the major awards he has received are the $2,000 First Altman Landscape Prize at the National Academy of Design in 1957 and again in 1959; Silver Medals of Honor at the American Watercolor Society exhibitions in 1953 and 1959; California Watercolor Society Purchase Award in 1957 and two medals at the Philadelphia Watercolor Club in 1954 and 1955.

Paintings by Mr. Betts are included in the permanent collections of the Fogg Museum of Art, National Academy of Design, Butler Institute of American Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Atlanta University, La Jolla Art Center, the Walter Chrysler Art Museum, and others.

The subject matter of Mr. Betts' paintings is almost exclusively the coast of Maine, where he spends his summers.

ISLAND BEACH, by Edward Betts
Painting in acrylic polymer, 18″ x 24″

Edward Betts, Professor of Art at the University of Illinois, holds a B.A. degree in History of Art from Yale University and an M.F.A. in Painting from the University of Illinois.

He has been represented in virtually every important national exhibition, including the Corcoran Biennials of Contemporary American Painting, American Painting Today at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Museum Annual, Brooklyn Museum International Watercolor Exhibitions, Pennsylvania Academy Annuals, and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, as well as international exchange exhibitions in England, Brazil, and Japan. He has held fourteen one-man shows in New York City, Chicago, Boston, and Philadelphia.

Among the major awards he has received are the $2,000 First Altman Landscape Prize at the National Academy of Design in 1957 and again in 1959; Silver Medals of Honor at the American Watercolor Society exhibitions in 1953 and 1959; California Watercolor Society Purchase Award in 1957 and two medals at the Philadelphia Watercolor Club in 1954 and 1955.

Paintings by Mr. Betts are included in the permanent collections of the Fogg Museum of Art, National Academy of Design, Butler Institute of American Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Atlanta University, La Jolla Art Center, the Walter Chrysler Art Museum, and others.

The subject matter of Mr. Betts' paintings is almost exclusively the coast of Maine, where he spends his summers.

ISLAND BEACH, by Edward Betts
Painting in acrylic polymer, 18″ x 24″

Edward Betts, Professor of Art at the University of Illinois, holds a B.A. degree in History of Art from Yale University and an M.F.A. in Painting from the University of Illinois.

He has been represented in virtually every important national exhibition, including the Corcoran Biennials of Contemporary American Painting, American Painting Today at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Museum Annual, Brooklyn Museum International Watercolor Exhibitions, Pennsylvania Academy Annuals, and the National Institute of Arts and Letters, as well as international exchange exhibitions in England, Brazil, Mexico, and Japan. He has held sixteen one-man shows in New York City, Chicago, Boston, and Philadelphia.

Among the major awards he has received are the $2000 First Altman Landscape Prize at the National Academy of Design in 1957, 1959, and again in 1966; Silver Medals of Honor at the American Watercolor Society exhibitions in 1953 and 1959; California Watercolor Society Purchase Award in 1957, and two medals at the Philadelphia Watercolor Club in 1954 and 1955.

Paintings by Mr. Betts are included in the permanent collections of the Fogg Museum of Art, National Academy of Design, Butler Institute of American Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, Atlanta University, La Jolla Art Center, the Walter Chrysler Art Museum and others.

The subject matter of Mr. Betts' paintings is almost exclusively the coast of Maine, where he spends his summers.

LINGUISTICS

CHANG, RICHARD F., Assistant Professor

Books

With H. Chao, P. Huang, Linda Hsai, Y. C. Wang

Twenty lectures on Chinese culture. Yale Press, New Haven, Conn., 225 pp.

KACHRU, BRAK B., Assistant Professor

Reviews

Āgrā jile kī bōlī, by R. S. Chaturvedi. J. Amer. Oriental Soc., 87:3.

KIM, CHIN-W., Assistant Professor

Articles

A cineradiographic study of Korean stops and a note on aspiration. In Quarterly progress report no. 86. M.I.T., Cambridge, Mass., pp. 259-72.

LEES, ROBERT B., Professor

Articles

Turkish harmony and the phonological description of assimilation. Türk Dili Arastirmalari Yilliği Belleten, 1966:279-97.

On departures from respected traditions. J.C.C.C.C., 18, 3:152-63.

LIGHTNER, THEODORE M., Assistant Professor of Linguistics and of Slavic Languages and Literatures

Articles

Sur l'emploi de règles mineures dans la phonologie du russe. Lang., 8:67-72.

On phonetic nasal-a alternations in modern Russian verb forms. In To honor Roman Jakobson. Mouton & Co., The Hague, II:1183-87.

On the phonology of Old Church Slavonic conjugation. IJSLP, X:1-28.

DOCTORAL DISSERTATIONS

Fox, Robert P. (B. B. Kachru, Adviser), A transformational treatment of Indian English syntax.

MARKETING

COHEN, JOEL B., Assistant Professor

Articles

An interpersonal orientation to the study of consumer behavior. J. Mktg. Res., 4, 3:270-78.

FERBER, ROBERT, Professor

See Survey Research Laboratory.

KASSARJIAN, HAROLD H., Visiting Associate Professor

Books

With D. L. Huff

The impact of trading stamps on retail sales in Kansas. Center for Regional Studies, Univ. Kansas, Lawrence, 85 pp.

Articles

With W. Kassarjian

Selective current bibliography for aesthetics and related fields; mass media. J. Aesth. and Art Crit., 26:510-12.

With M. Nakanishi

A study of selected opinion measurement techniques. J. Mktg. Res., 4, 2:148-53.

MILLICAN, RICHARD D., Associate Professor

Articles

A re-examination of Engel's Laws using BLS data (1960-61). J. Mktg., 31, 4:18-21.

SIMON, JULIAN L., Associate Professor

Articles

Expenditure policy for mail order advertisers. J. Mktg. Res., 4, 1:59-61.

How many books should be stored where? An economic analysis. Coll. and Res. Lib., 28, 2:92-103.

Business ethics, business ideology, and business behavior. Bus. and Soc., 7, 2:18-32.

The effect of competitive structure upon advertising expenditures. Qt. J. Econ., 81, 4:610-27.

The effect of fixed-wage rises on discriminated-against minorities. Ind. and Lab. Rel. Rev., 21, 1:96-97.

Some principles of practical welfare economics. Management Sci., 13, 10:621-30.

With L. Golembo

The spread of a cost-free business innovation: the case of the January white sale. J. Bus., 40, 4:385-88.

SLATE, DANIEL M., Associate Professor

Articles

Strategic implications of brand competition in the food processing industry. In New concepts for food industry marketing and planning. Report to the National Commission of Food Marketing for the Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc. Arthur D. Little, Inc., Cambridge, Mass., pp. 23-32.
